By the Court

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant and the learned A.G.A.

The applicant is the husband of the deceased wife who met with an unnatural death within seven years of her marriage. There are allegations in the F.I.R. that she used to be ill-treated and harassed for and in connection with the dowry demand. It was submitted that it was accidental death but the perusal of the copy of the post mortem report does not, in my view, support this contention. It is not a fit case for bail. Rejected.
